

PECAT

Physical Education Curriculum Analysis Tool Workshop March 27–28, 2007 Pierre, SD

The Physical Education Curriculum Analysis Tool (PECAT) is an assessment tool developed by the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention's Division of Adolescent and School Health (CDC-DASH), in partnership with physical education experts representing state education agencies, school districts, schools, colleges, and national organizations. The PECAT helps school districts to conduct a clear, complete, and consistent analysis of written physical education curricula (grades K–12), for delivery of high-quality physical education in schools.

Schedule: The PECAT workshop will be held at the Chamber of Commerce, 800 West Dakota Avenue, Pierre, SD on March 27 and 28, 2007 from 8:00 a.m.–4:00 p.m. on both days.

Target Audience: School teams made up of a minimum of three individuals are eligible to attend this FREE Training. Team members may include:

- Curriculum Directors
- Administrators
- School Board Members
- Institutions of Higher Education
- Physical Educators
- Advocates

Workshop Goals: Users of the PECAT will be able to help their school:

- conduct a thorough analysis of the written physical education curriculum;
- select or develop effective curricula;
- create a curriculum improvement plan;
- provide quality curriculum and instruction, programs and services that promote enjoyable, lifelong physical activity;
- increase participation in physical activity through physical education.

Credit Information: Pending approval, the PECAT workshop will be offered for one graduate credit through Black Hills State University for $62.00 and for Teacher Renewal Credit through the Department of Education at no charge. Participants may also take the course for no credit.

Meals and Accommodations: The workshop includes lunch on-site both days. A block of rooms has been reserved at the Kelly Inn, 713 West Sioux Avenue, 224–4140 and the Governor's Inn, 700 West Sioux Avenue, 224–4200. Participants are responsible for making their own reservations and for the room charges. School rates are available at the Kelly Inn and state rates are available at the Governor's Inn.
